Alex Anderson's love of quilting began in 1978 when she completed her Grandmother's Flower Garden quilt as part of her work toward a degree in art from San Francisco State University. Over the years, she has focused on understanding fabric relationships and has developed an intense appreciation for traditional quilts and quilting surface design.

Alex is the author of more than 30 books, in four languages, selling more than one million copies worldwide. She designs fabric for RJR Fabrics and is co-creator of the Quilters' Select Brand of quilting supplies with RNK Distributing/Floriani.

With Ricky Tims, she is a founding partner of The Quilt Show.com and The Quilt Life Magazine, which was published by the American Quilter's Society from 2009-2014. The Quilt Show is an interactive online video/web TV program that has more than 160,000 registered members in more than 100 countries. The show's mission is to educate, inspire, entertain, connect and grow the quilting community. The Quilt Life celebrated the lifestyle of today's quiltmaker in a fresh, full-color format. In 2010, The Library Journal recognized it as one of the top 10 new magazines.

The International Quilt Festival named Alex as its 2008 Silver Star Award winner, an honor presented annually to an individual "whose work and influence has made—and continues to make—a sizable and positive impact on the quilting industry and community."

In February 2009, readers of Quilters' Newsletter Magazine selected Alex as "The Most Influential Person in The Quilting Industry" in a three-way tie with Ricky Tims and Karey Bresenhan of Quilts, Inc.

Alex's personal mission is not only to share her love of quilting with anyone who will listen, but to educate and encourage those interested in quilting as clearly and simply as possible so quilting can continue to be handed down from generation to generation.

Thank you!

Dear Quilting Friends,

Adventures...I know that everyone who attended the June Meeting in Grand Lake had a wonderful time. Pat Yamin is a wonderful speaker and teacher and I know that we all learned something new to add to our sewing tool kit this month. Thanks to the Peaks n' Pines Quilt Guild for inviting us to come to the mountains and experience quilting in that part of our state. We hope to return again in the future.

Happy 41st Birthday CQC! We will have another exciting and wonderful time at our Birthday Meeting with special guest Alex Anderson. What a special treat to get to hear her speak on Saturday and then have time with her on Sunday to discuss how to quilt our quilts and how to turn our stashes into something incredible. Remember to arrive early and carpool as we are expecting many quilters to attend this meeting. If you have a quilt that was inspired by Alex plan to bring it for Show & Tell so that we can show off the quilts of Colorado.

I hope you are working on or searching for the quilt that you will enter into the Quilt-a-Fair Show this year. The theme is Fall Holidays and Other Happenings. The quilt can be new or one that has been part of your collection. We have sold out all booths, so a beautiful CQC Show will definitely add to the festivities.

We are also excited that the Small Quilt Auction will be part of the show again this year. We had a great turn out last year both of small quilts and bidders. We have seen a couple of this year's entries and they are beautiful. We will also have another quilt from the Opal Frey collection, as well as a small quilt from Cheryl Phillips, one of our own Colorado teachers and a recent speaker. Look for more information about the Small Quilt Auction on the Quilt-a Fair page.

The Colorado Quilting Council, Inc. is a statewide organization of people interested in preserving the heritage of quilting, promoting excellence in quilting and related arts, and in providing a source of information and inspiration.

Membership dues started in July 2018 are $25 with the newsletter online and $35 for mailed newsletters. Membership dues are for a full 12 month year. Pin replacement is $25. Guest fees are $10 per meeting.

Colorado Threads, the official publication of CQC, is mailed 11 times a year. The Council reserves the right to select articles and advertising that reflect the purposes of the Council. Articles, photos, changes and newsletter reprint requests should be sent to our editor. Everything needs to be on the editor's desk by the 15th of the previous month. Mitzi King, 303.816.9566, 23471 Black Bear Trail, Conifer, CO 80433, email cqceditor@gmail.com

Advertising in the newsletter is available only to members of CQC. The Business Directory $60/yearly; one-eighth page ad $25 (horizontal); one-quarter page ad $35 (vertical); one-half page ad $50 (horizontal).

All advertising text must be on the editor's desk by the 15th of the month for inclusion in the following month's newsletter. Send fees to: Connie Mondy, CQC, P.O. Box 295, Wheat Ridge, CO 80034.

Send address changes to the Membership Chairman:

We are still looking for members to volunteer for the Executive Board and Committee Chairs for 2020.

Please read Laural's descriptions of the jobs we need to fill, and consider becoming a part of our wonderful team. This organization is ready for the next phase of quilting in Colorado and we want to see some new faces, new ideas and creativity to take us into the next decade of quilting. If you are interested in joining our team, please speak to Laural Hoppes or myself.

We look forward to seeing you at a meeting this summer!!

Happy Summer Quilting,
Dawn

The Beginnings of Kit Quilts

Kit quilts began to emerge on the quilt market in the early 20th century. They have often been derided as “paint by number quilts.” They have endured however and today are usually just considered to be a product found in every quilt shop, often purchased by new quilters unsure of their skills in cutting or not confident in color choice, or by more proficient quilters because it is timesaving and many of the patterns are so beautiful.

In the 20s and 30s, kits came in several different types; pre-cut pieces to stitch into blocks, basted appliqué blocks, printed cross stitched blocks, or as finished quilts. Earlier quilt kits were not pre-stamped but consisted of a piece of cloth, a perforated pattern and a paste or powder to create the design. This technique has come full circle with the templates and pounding powder in use today to mark quilts.

It wasn't long before the more commonly known stamped with blue lines were devised. Die cut patterns were also sold in a variety of shapes including butterflies. They followed the Colonial Revival style of decorating fostered by a plethora of women's magazines. Because kit quilts were marketed in magazines, catalogs and newspapers, a certain homogeneity in pattern styles developed that went beyond the regionalism sometimes seen in other quilts from that period.

Colors were usually solid color pastels. Motifs were often floral echoed by the scalloped edges that finished the quilts. The designs were stamped on fabrics or pre-cut in pieces carefully shaded to be appliquéd into realistic flowers. Additionally, embroidery was often used in combination with the appliqué to provide detail to the designs.

Interactive Lectures with Alex Anderson

Community Recreation Center
6842 Wadsworth Blvd, Arvada

Members $25 for one lecture;
$45 for both

Non-members* $35 for one lecture;
$70 for both

Alex Anderson will continue CQC's annual birthday celebration with two additional lectures:

- Beautifully Quilted: Are you stumped when it's time to "quilt as desired"? In this interactive lecture, Alex will explain the thought process toward selecting quilting designs and share tips and tricks to help you choose or create designs that will make your next quilt a sparkling success. This lecture is for traditional and contemporary quilters.
- Dynamite Results from Your Stash: Crazy about your fabric collection but not sure how to best use it? In this interactive lecture, Alex will discuss color options, design strategies and more that will help you see your stash with new eyes. She'll share a variety of stash quilts that will leave your mind brimming with ideas as your hands ache to get home and dig into your stash.

* Non-member fee for both lectures includes a $25 one-year membership in The Colorado Quilting Council.

One-Day Workshop with
Sue Hickman
Fractured Floral

Owl's Nest Quilters
527 Bogart Lane, Grand Junction

Members	$55
Non-members*	$80

Sue Hickman will teach her fracturing technique with participants using floral panels. They'll learn cutting and piecing and be given insight into finishing techniques for fracturing four small panels. She'll recommend panels that are good candidates for her technique.

* Non-member fee includes a $25 one-year membership in the Colorado Quilting Council.

Sunday 9:00a–4:00p
October 27

One-Day Workshop with
Laura Wasilowski
Accidental Artist

Alfalfa's Market Community Room
 785 E. South Boulder Road, Louisville

Members	$55
Non-members*	$80

Laura Wasilowski says, "When you design quilts as you go, you embrace serendipity and become an 'accidental artist.'" In this workshop, you'll begin with a "heap" of pre-fused scraps from Laura's stash to trigger your design ideas. You'll learn several methods of creating fused quilt designs in an improvisational manner, and you'll create and learn systems for constructing your artwork and putting your colorful fabric kit to good use.

* Non-member fee includes a $25 one-year membership in the Colorado Quilting Council.

Register at any time for all of the 2019 workshops. See the CQC website for a registration form. Information on current workshops is listed on page 4 of this newsletter and can also be found on the website.

Pat Yamin took the fear out of Y-seams during her workshop "One Hexagon, 30 Diamonds" Friday, June 21 in Grand Lake. Despite a rare June rainy/snowy day, close to 20 participants brought their own unique color and fabric combinations to the quilt Pat designed based on inspiration from her collection of antique quilts.

The first step was to select a fabric for the hexagons and center diamonds, both of which were consistent fabrics throughout the quilt. Then participants selected coordinating fabrics that were arranged in a scrappy fashion. Pat's method didn't require pinning or backstitching.

The pattern for the quilt and templates for easy cutting are available on her website: comequiltwithme.com.

Quilt-a-Fair Update

We have sold all of the booths and we have many new vendors this year. Hope everyone is making or searching for their quilts to put in the Fall Holidays Show. We look forward to another great Small Quilt Auction. Remember that the maker gets 70% of the selling price. This is a great way to supplement your QAF shopping spree. We will again have Jeananne Wright doing quilt appraisals and also shops doing demos. See the website for information on Quilt-a-Fair. Check to see if your favorite shop will be attending QAF this year. Start saving because there are going to be wonderful quilting items you will want to add to your collection. See you in September!

2019 QUILT-A-FAIR QUILT SHOW

Fall Holidays and Other Happenings

We are having another quilt show during Quilt-a-Fair 2019. The theme is Fall Holidays and Other Happenings. We can all remember the holidays we celebrate during the months of September through December. But what about other events that we have celebrated during those months? We think of events like Quilting Bees, Travel Opportunities, Schools and Colleges Beginning, Crop Harvesting, Our Families' Activities, working on Hobbies, Photography, and in Clubs. Chances are you have a quilt with these various themes or others not mentioned here. Please sort through the quilts you've made or those you have given to someone as a gift. There is probably one you could enter in our 2019 Quilt-a Fair Quilt Show.

Here are some particulars:

Quilts must be entered by one or more 2019 CQC members.

Quilt should not be less than 63 inches horizontally.

Quilt should not be longer than 104 inches vertically.

Quilt can have been made any time before and including in 2019. Quilts for the show need to be in good condition.

Quilts will not be judged, just one Viewer's Choice given.

You can find information on how to deliver your quilt to us by following the information included on the 2019 Quilt-A-Fair Quilt Show Entry Form. Those forms can be found in each CQC Colorado Threads Newsletter or at the June, July and August CQC meetings on the Membership or Raffle tables.

Completed entry forms with $10.00 entry fee for each quilt entered and made payable to CQC must be completed and mailed or returned by August 1, 2019 to:

CQC – Quilt-a-Fair
2019 Quilt Show
18121 E. Hampden Ave Unit C # 236
Aurora, CO 80013

Please include a description of the quilt you are entering on the back of the entry form. (See form for details.)

Quilts need to be delivered to one of our Quilt Drop locations between August 10 and 31, 2019. (See form for details.)

We would like to plan on your entry for our 2019 Quilt-A-Fair Quilt Show. Thank you.

Quilt-a-Fair's Small Quilt Auction

We will bring back our small quilt, live auction again this year. Quilts will be restricted to small quilts only. The person donating the quilt receives 70% of the proceeds and the guild receives 30% of the auction proceeds. This was a great fundraiser last year.

- Quilts may be any shape but must not exceed 120 inches total around the perimeter.
- Any style of quilt will be accepted: modern, traditional, etc. I do need some way to hang it for display.
- Quilts will be accepted now through August 15th at any meeting or they can be mailed to Betty Andrews, 13655 West 74th Drive, Arvada, CO 80005. Call Betty Andrews at 720-662-4564 if you have any questions.
- Quilts will be on display near the refreshment area until the auction. The auction will be held in the demo/classroom area on Saturday. We will be asking for volunteers to assist with quilt movement, monitoring the quilts while on display, answering questions, and keeping up with the auctioneer.

Quilt-a-Fair Volunteering

Please volunteer for a two-hour session at Quilt-A-Fair. You get a free admission for the show, a chance to win a 2020 membership ($25 level), a chance to win a certificate for a workshop ($55 value), fat quarters and other goodies. We need help for the admissions desk, the CQC Raffle Quilt, and white glove for the Small Quilt Auction. Hours start at 9:00a to 11:00a, 11:00a to 1:00p, 1:00p to 3:00p and 3:00p to 5:00p. You may sign up by contacting Karen Brown at 303-948-2041 (if I am not at home, leave a message or I will block the call), cqsecretary2016@gmail.com, or at the raffle quilt table at meetings. Remember, Quilt-a-Fair is a success because of the individuals who volunteer their time. Your volunteer time will also be counted in the Volunteer of the Month award to be given out in December.

Project Warm Hearts

Purpose

- ♦ To involve members of CQC in a charitable project.
- ♦ To assist organizations in their fundraising activities.
- ♦ To give quilters the opportunity to do more for others and help a charity of their choice.

Instructions

- ♦ Make a block following the directions given.
- ♦ Fill out the form with your charity of choice.
- ♦ Include a completed form with each block you turn in.

For each block turned in, the named charity will be entered in a drawing to choose which of the nominated charities the quilt will be awarded to. (For example—if you turn in five blocks for the Red Cross, the Red Cross will be in the drawing five times.)

- ♦ Turn blocks in at the CQC meetings or mail to Nancy, listed below.

Drawing

The quilts will be presented at CQC general meetings. Questions? Call Nancy Samuel 303-730-8634.

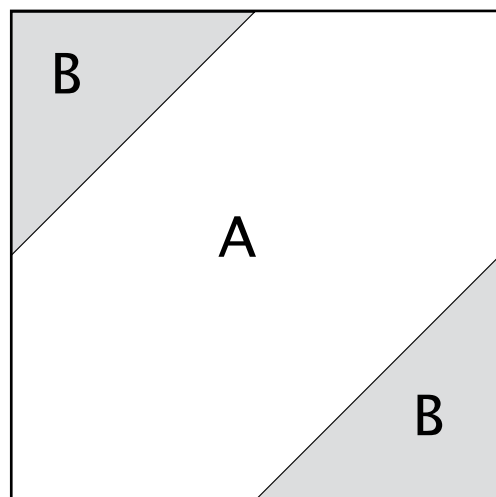

Be sure to keep track of your volunteer hours and turn them in to the Volunteering Stars Committee or log them online at OurVolts website.

General Meeting

June 22, 2019, Grand Lake Center

1st Vice President Pat Cleaveland called the meeting to order at 10:00 am. She thanked the Grand Lake Center for their help and allowing us to use their space for our meeting. Pat thanked Peaks N' Pines for the fabulous table of refreshments. Martha Stevenson welcomed everyone to Grand Lake.

The minutes from the May general meeting were approved as published in the newsletter.

Karen Brown read the abridged minutes of the June 11th board meeting.

Officer Reports:

Membership, Pat Cleaveland—41 members were in attendance, 10 guests for a total of 51 at the meeting—total membership is 592 with 2 new member today.

Treasury, Mary Rush—See the newsletter for details. You can give to Colorado Gives Day at any time (look for us on the list of charities) coloradogives.org

Programs 2019, Dana Jones—see the newsletter for details. Please sign up to take a workshop in Grand Junction. Give me ideas for speakers and techniques you want to learn.

Committee Reports:

2019 Raffle Quilt, Kay Hefner—please purchase and/or sell your tickets. The money received from the sale of tickets helps pay for our speakers and the facilities where we meet.

Project Warm Hearts, Nancy Samuels—A new block is in the June newsletter. Follow the instructions printed in the newsletter. I also have kits for check out and quilt tops for quilting.

Fall Retreat 2019, Betty Andrews—Fall Retreat will be held October 4, 5 & 6, 2019 at The Hideaway in the Black Forest area. Barbara Beasley will be our instructor. Barbara is famous for her classes on animal portraits. She has a limited class size, so we will have a registration start date set for the fall retreat. More details to come. Registration will begin on June 1st. 6 openings available as of today and 5 spaces in the class

Small Quilt Auction, Betty Andrews—We will bring back our small quilt auction again this year. Quilts will be restricted to small quilts only. The person donating the quilt receives 70% of the proceeds and the guild receives 30% of the auction proceeds. This was a great fundraiser last year. • Quilts may be any shape but must not exceed 120 inches total around the perimeter. • Any style of quilt will be accepted, modern, traditional, etc. • Quilts will be accepted now through August 15th at any meeting or they can be mailed to Betty Andrews, 13655 West 74th Drive, Arvada, CO 80005. Call Betty Andrews at 720-662-4564 if you have any questions.

Volunteers, Laural Hoppes—there are still positions on the board available for 2020, please step forward and join a fun group that is working to move CQC forward. I challenge each of you to join a committee. We have openings for Hospitality 2019 and Parliamentarian, talk to Dawn

Quilt Show for Quilt-A-Fair, Kay Hefner—2019 QUILT-A-FAIR QUILT SHOW, Fall Holidays and Other Happenings. See the newsletter for more details.

Shirley Sanden Memorial Fund, Sue Keck & Lucille Rypinski—the spring quilt awarded in Grand Lake to Linda Crane of Grand Lake. Workshop winners for volunteering in 2018 are Glenda Brown and Jean Ruger.

2020 Quilt Show—We need someone to step forward to chair a committee to plan a quilt show to be possibly displayed in the Lakewood Heritage Center in 2020. This show could take the place of the Capitol Quilt Show, which we can no longer hang. We are still receiving interest in a big show, so please help us put one on in 2020.

Library, Carol Cook—check out the 2200 books in the CQC Library online (LibraryThing.com).

Volunteer of the Quarter, Jackie Anderson—This award is based on the time accumulated every three months. The award is for the membership not the Board Members. A different individual will be selected each time. Four will be awarded. Please enter your volunteer hours on the Track It Forward site.

Mystery Quilt, Carol Cook—The final clue for the 2019 Mystery Quilt was revealed in the June newsletter. Today I am showing the completed quilt, named Faithful Friends. This is a medallion style quilt which is 54" x 62" completed. This quilt is primarily constructed with Half-Square Triangles and Flying Geese units arranged into several different blocks and borders. A huge thank you goes to Karen Brown (our recording secretary) who tested the quilt instructions and found more errors than I would have liked. I hope all of our quilters enjoyed making this year's mystery quilt and welcome your feedback.

Announcements:

Sign up for: the small quilt auction for QAF; Volunteer to work at QAF; Workshops; QAF Quilt Show.

Grand Lake Quilt Guild, Peaks N' Pines, Quilt Show July 20 and 21.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:55p.

Respectfully Submitted, Karen Brown, Secretary

MONTHLY CRITIQUE CLASS

with award-winning fiber artist Lea McComas!

4TH SATURDAY OF THE MONTH

$20 PER CLASS | 10-1PM

June 22; July 27; Aug. 24; Sept. 28; Oct. 26; Nov. 23

Join award-winning fiber artist, author and teacher Lea McComas for a new class series at the Rocky Mountain Quilt Museum (RMQM). This once monthly class is open to all skill levels. You will learn how to expand your knowledge of tools and techniques, be more creative, deepen your understanding of color, design and composition, and discover your inner artist. Each class will begin with a short design lesson presented by Lea along with a suggested follow-up activity to be completed prior to the next class. The remainder of each session will be devoted to critique of projects; both in-progress and completed projects are welcome. Bring your work for group analysis and discussion in a safe and supportive environment. Sign up at www.rmqm.org or call 303-277-0377.

Abridged Board Minutes

June 11, 2019

The meeting was called to order at 6:10p by Dawn Mills, President. There were 14 Board Members in attendance.

Committee reports were given and discussed. We need to have individuals sign up for workshops, volunteer for the open positions for 2020 and get the word out about Quilt-a-Fair so we have a great turnout.

The meeting adjourned at 8:15p.

The next meeting is July 9, 2019, 6:00 pm at Clements Community Center, 1580 Yarrow St, Lakewood CO.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:15p.

Respectfully submitted, Karen Brown, CQC Secretary

1790 - 1795 Martha Soule's Crewel Embroidered and Pieced Quilt

In 1951 the donor informed the museum that she had a quilt made by her husband's great-great grandmother in 1792. A note attached to the quilt stated that it was made by Martha Babson Lane Soule of Freeport, Maine, and that "she spun and dyed the worsted and designed the pattern embroidered on it." The donor continued in her letter, "In going through some old correspondence we find that the mate to this quilt was donated to your Museum many years ago by my husband's great-aunt Mrs. Caroline Gordon." That quilt had been donated to the Museum in 1925, and more than 25 years later this quilt from the Soule family was also added to the Collection.

This quilt is both pieced and embroidered. The center panel, a 38-inch square, is embroidered in indigo-dyed wool, surrounded by a border pieced of 8" printed cotton squares and triangles, with a crewel embroidered outer border. Embroidery stitches include stem, cross, herringbone, seed, buttonhole, Roumanian, running, and couching.

Considering the style of the quilt and the use of cotton 2-ply sewing and quilting threads in the construction indicate a date no earlier than the very-late-eighteenth century or probably early-nineteenth century. The crewel embroidered pieces might have been from bed furniture of an earlier date. The center panel appears to be cut from a larger piece of embroidery; the top and side borders are also shortened; only the bottom border, with a large heart, is a complete design. The base fabrics for the embroidered sections and the lining are cotton and linen/cotton with a thin layer of carded cotton between them. The pieced inner border is composed of two fabrics; one resist-printed the other English copperplate printed ca 1775-1785. The chevron patterned quilting is done in a running stitch, 7 stitches per inch. Martha Babson Lane was born December 22, 1772 in Freeport, Cumberland, Maine. The Lane family is listed among the settlers in that area of Maine as early as the 1650s. Martha married Moses Soule on May 25, 1793. Moses farmed in the Freeport, Maine area, and was a deacon in the church and a caulker by trade. Martha and Moses Soule had eleven children, three of whom died within a few months of each other in 1807 at ages three, five and eight. Three other children, born later, were given their names; John/James Babson, Nancy and Jeannette. One son, Gideon Lane Soule (1796-1879) was the first of his four brothers to attend Phillips Exeter Academy. He later became a professor at the Academy and for thirty-five years, from 1838 to 1873, served as a Principal. Under his able direction the Academy experienced increasing growth, prosperity and prestige. The youngest son, John Babson Lane Soule (1815-1891), after attending the Academy, graduated from Bowdoin College. Although he completed law studies, he spent his life as a teacher, journalist and minister in Indiana, Wisconsin and Illinois. He is noted for possibly being the originator of the popular slogan: "Go West, young man!" used in an editorial he wrote in 1851 for the Terre Haute Express which was later used by Horace Greeley so effectively in an 1865 New York Tribune editorial. Martha Babson Lane Soule died on December 20, 1837 and is buried in the Lane Cemetery near Freeport, Maine.
